

From our correspondent in Rio de Janeiro:

“There are many posters held up saying similar things like this one, “we left Facebook” or “get out of Facebook and take to the streets”, etc. The FB, Twitter, Instagram activity is intense in helping to coordinate the manifestations quite effectively. There are simultaneous manifestations in tens of cities everyday, manifestos and Youtube videos accusing the violence and claiming rights abound. Such a national movement has never happened before.”

