

In the German newspaper FAZ (Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung) of Monday June 21, 2010, I got a piece on the Italian media theorist Franco Berardi and his work on the psychopathology of information overload. Here it is, in German. Early May I met 'Bifo' in his hometown Bologna and soon after read two of his recently translated books in English, The Soul at Work (Semiotext(e), 2009) and Precarious Rhapsody (Minor Compositions, 2009). Soon, the extended English original is going to be published, somewhere. I will let you know where.
