MONEYLAB #3

The third edition of the MoneyLab conference will take place on 1 & 2 December in Amsterdam. As an attendee of one of our previous conferences, we would love to welcome you to the conference again with a 15% discount on this year's tickets!

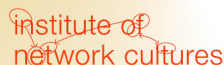

To take advantage of the discount, order your tickets now on Eventbrite using the code MLattendees15. This offer is valid until the 31st of October and can be used to buy day tickets and full conference tickets (including student tickets).

MoneyLab #3 Failing Better dispels the notion that anything is too big to fail. Universal Basic Income, Financial Surveillance, Platform Cooperativism and Blockchain Governance will be discussed during a two-day symposium featuring talks, workshop and art performances. Among our international speakers are Brett Scott, Trebor Scholz, Renzo Martens, Tori Abernathy and Dmytri Kleiner.

Looking forward to seeing you again at MoneyLab #3 Failing Better in December.

Best,

The MoneyLab team
